Vacations, Parties in Knolls Spotlight

By VIRGINIA JONES
DAVENPORT 6-1617

Vacations and parties are spotlighting the activities of Kettler Knolls families this week. Many Halloween dances and events are beginning to roll in, but let's not forget the Torrance Elementary PTA annual carnival which will be on Halloween night. We hear that they'll have their delicious ham dinner besides all the booths and games for young and old.

Georgia and Charles Spiker and children, Chuck and Cynthia, of 1841 Middlebrook Rd. are home once again from their month-long trip which covered many, many states. The trip was planned mainly because of a National Supply Management Club convention in Milwaukee, but the trip included visits with many relatives also. Leaving from here, the foursome enjoyed Bryce and Zion National Parks, and Yellowstone Park to name just a few interesting spots. Friends in Wisconsin enjoyed visiting with the Spikers once again and while Mrs. Spiker and the kiddies were visiting her folks in Urbana, O., Charles attended the convention. His folks in West Virginia and Pennsylvania were visited also, completing the memorable 7000-mile trip. Included on the trip were visits to all the National Supply Co. offices in many states.

Mrs. Thelma Setzer of 2802 Walnut St. was hostess at a luncheon last Wednesday, with everyone enjoying a delicious salad with all the trimmings. Guests included Mesdames Lois DeVries, Margaret Rowe, Rosemary Weston, Katy Bales, Irene Dunston, Eileen Hardesty, Margaret Dyroll, Jackie Shelhart, Millie Hines, Helen Rick, Rose Seuff and Nancy Richards.

Rachel Circle is busily making plans for the Methodist Church bazaar slated for Dec. 3. They're all working on the country store items and will also manage the popular lunch counter, says Mrs. Jackie Shelhart of 23204 Faleua Ave., Circle president. These plans were formulated at last week's monthly meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. Gemilla Hopland of 2109 Middlebrook Rd. Mrs. Maxine Hooper was co-hostess and delicious pumpkin pie and coffee was served to sixteen members. Mrs. Katherine De Witt is one of the newer members and many of the young matrons enjoyed the "get-acquainted" meeting.

A delightful birthday party to which 14 of her friends were invited, highlighted the birthday of Gayle Hardesty, daughter of Bill and Eileen Hardesty of 23021 Huber Ave. Gayle became six years old last week and the traditional party games, birthday decorations and refreshments of cake and ice cream became a day dear to a little girl's heart. May you have many, many more happy birthdays, Gayle.

Houseguests at the Walnut St. home of Harry and Thelma Setzer recently were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Peeler of Portland, Ore. Visiting for a week, the Peelers enjoyed the California sights once again.

Doing something different for a day were several families in Kettler Knolls when the Knights of Columbus members had an "Orphan for a Day" program last Sunday. These children had a chance to get away from their orphanage and we can imagine the pleasure it was for them. The William Hardestys of Huber Ave. enjoyed two lovely little girls that day, who are sisters. Also entertaining two youngsters that day were the Henry Sifers family of 1804 Middlebrook Rd., and we heard that the Wilz family boarded a mere half dozen kiddies for the day.

A delightful informal party was the recent event held at the home of Mrs. Teresa Sifers of 1804 Middlebrook Rd. Guests included Mesdames Lois Pool, Eileen Batty, Sylvene Batty, Wilona Hanni, Berniece Hartley, Velma Lucas, Thelma Setzer, Emma Lou Clark and Eileen Hardesty.

Due home today are Mr. and Mrs. Byron Wright of 2126 Middlebrook Rd. who have been on a visit to Chicago and Indiana visiting relatives and friends. They've been gone three weeks and undoubtedly enjoyed their vacation very much.

Mrs. Rosemary Weston of 23052

"He sent his gal three telegrams a day for the past three weeks to meet him during GET ACQUAINTED WEEK, October 25-31. Today he gets a telegram telling him she's married the messenger boy."

Free Circus Tickets To be Given to 250

Free tickets to the Shrine Circus—250 of them—plus free transportation will be given to some lucky fifth and sixth graders in the Torrance area today and tomorrow through the courtesy of A. D. "Buck" Gianni, potentate's ambassador to the El Toga Shrine Club, and the Torrance Recreation Department.

Huber Ave. hosted another delightful and friendly party in her home last week, entertaining 13 guests. Included among the guests were Mrs. Irene Sandborn of Redondo Beach, Mrs. Mary Snider of Seaside Heights and Mrs. Margaret Hoopingardner and her neighbor from Wilmington.

Mrs. Joyce Le Mue and children Kenny and Collette of 2079 Reynosa Dr. and Mrs. Gladys LeMue of Torrance entertained last week for Racine, Wis. to visit their family and many friends for a few weeks. Lyle LeMue and his father Ralph LeMue have stayed behind to "batch" for a while.

By the way, a former owner of the home at 2079 Reynosa Dr., Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cummings, dropped by to visit last Sunday. That is to say, Bob came by. His wife Mary is still confined to the Long Beach General Hospital and will be there for a few more months. We're all very happy to hear that she is getting much better and is able to have company every Wednesday from 2 to 4 p.m. You may also drop her a line or send a card, as she'll be more than happy to hear from all her old friends. Her two lovely children, Laurie Gayle and Bobby miss their mother very much but do get to peek through the window at her and they are certainly growing up. Since Mary gets the Torrance Herald every Thursday, she keeps up on our news. Hurry and get well, Mary, we all miss you very much!

Licensed Feeding of Waterfowl Approved
As a crop depredation relief measure for California ranchers, the Fish and Game Commission has approved the licensed feeding of waterfowl this season by duck hunting clubs and individuals.
At a short special meeting held in San Francisco, the five-man group also approved Federal waterfowl hunting regulations for 1953-54. They accepted a split season, October 16 to November 18 and December 1 to January 10, with a basic daily bag and possession limit of seven ducks plus four sprig or widgeon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Howard Smith of 1836 Sepulveda Blvd. are home now following their three-week trip to West Virginia and Washington, D. C. In Washington they enjoyed a 10-day stay visiting with friends and seeing all the wonderful sights. They also attended a three-day gathering of Modern Woodmen of America top-ranking state and district managers in Lexington, Ky. Smith is the district manager for the fraternal insurance society in the Torrance area and is one of 80 given the special award and recognition due him.
